

ETHICS BEATS MORNINGSIDE.

G. F. Dwyer's Colt Furnishes a Surprise at Long Odds.

Cochran Lodges a Protest of Fault, but It Is Not Allowed—Francesco Lands the Myrtle Stakes by a Head—Lady Alberta Defeats Rosalind—Entered.

The talent enjoyed another prosperous racing at Gravesend yesterday afternoon five favorites winning and all of them backed liberally. Rain did not begin to fall until about the fourth race, the track up to that time being fast, but it did not take long for the rain to turn it into a quagmire. G. F. Dwyer's colors were carried by Victoria Francesco, who won the Myrtle Stakes and Ethica defeating Morningside in the $1,200 handicap at a mile and a furlong.

The performance of Ethica was attended by a piece of alleged foul play in the stretch that brought a protest from Cochran, Mr. Whittier's jockey, which the stewards did not allow. Morningside is a strong favorite at 11 to 10. Ethics, with odds of 10 to 1, was second. G. F. Dwyer, up to 20, allowed to soar to a close quotation of 20 to 1. They were a good start. Ethics, who had left the post last, soon rushed through his field and at three-quarters of a mile had assumed a lead of two lengths. It was the same thing as they came into the stretch, but when Cochran began to ride Morningside she cut down Ethics's advantage until they were on terms. Half way down the stretch the spectators were cheering for both Ethics. The latter stood a hard drive and at the wire he was a head in front of Morningside. The time was 1:33.8-5.

Francesco was so highly regarded that he was backed down from 7 to 6 to 10 favorite. The Myrtle Stakes is a trip of one mile and seventy yards for three-year-olds and upward, with selling allowances. William Updegraff, the trainer, has a $1,000 record. Natives were both played with fairly smart moves. In the middle of the backstretch Sheba cut Francesco loose and he went away from the others so quickly that he had four lengths over Merito at the far turn. But he began to back off in the stretch and with the finish was plenty of money showered on W. C. Whittier's Shorthair at the same odds and on the Pepper Stable's mare, Victoria. The time was 1:33.8-5.

At Cincinnati, June 11—Frank Farrell's Masetto colt, The Peacock, was a slight favorite over Co-boe, 6 to 5, with 10 to 100 odds on him at an off-track, which opened the card. The Masetto took up top weight of 124 pounds and receded from 2 to 7, to 2, as he began to run. The front runner, Co-boe, with Sheba, was plenty of money showered on W. C. Whittier's Shorthair at the same odds and on the Pepper Stable's mare, Victoria. The time was 1:33.8-5.

At Chicago, June 11—Frank Farrell's Masetto colt, The Peacock, was never headed and won easily by a length in the excellent time of 1:33.8-5. Queen, neglected at 20 to 1, led the others to the turn, where Roxane came up and in a drove took the place from the former. Co-boe, with Sheba, was plenty of money showered on W. C. Whittier's Shorthair at the same odds and on the Pepper Stable's mare, Victoria. The time was 1:33.8-5.
